

Joshua DeSilva, PsyD, CGP (they/them) has been doing group relations work since 2012. Dr. DeSilva is a certified AKRI consultant and is particularly interested in large group work. They have led the large and small group teams for multiple directors, have directed conferences online and in person, and they have a passion for applying group relations methodology to the study of identity (e.g., gender, race, and sexuality). Their conference "Queering Leadership: Exploring Gender Expansiveness in Organizational Life" will take place in Southern California in April 2025.
